AVI-SPL to Donate Funds for Haiti Disaster Relief

Company Pledges $15,000 in Matching Contributions to American Red Cross

TAMPA, Fla. Jan. 20, 2010 – AVI-SPL, the largest global integrator of audio visual and video conferencing systems and services, today announced a company-wide donations drive for disaster relief efforts in Haiti. To support this effort, the company has pledged to match employee donations dollar-for-dollar up to $15,000.

“Employees here at AVI-SPL were deeply saddened by the events that took place in Haiti last week and wanted to show their support,” said John Zettel, CEO, AVI-SPL. “In response, the company chose to champion their cause by encouraging employees to give through our ‘Help for Haiti’ drive.”

Donations collected from the drive, ending on Feb. 1, will be donated to the American Red Cross.
